

Pamela Meeker Wed to Renke Thye

SPECIAL TO THE NEW YORK TIMES

WACCABUC, N.Y., May 24 —Miss Pamela Hale Meeker, daughter of Mr. Alan Northcote Sidnam of New York and Robert DeWitt Clinton Meeker of Greenwich, Conn., was married this afternoon to Renke Bernhard Thye. He is the son of Mrs. Erik B. Thye of Hamburg, Germany, and the late Mr. Thye.

The Rev. Dr. J. Burton Thomas of the Episcopal Church of the Heavenly Rest in New York performed the ceremony in the Mead Memorial Chapel.

The bride wore a kaftan of ivory silk organza with an heirloom veil of Belgian rose point. She carried yellow lantana, ivy and gypsophila.

Miss Caroline Northcote Sidnam was maid of honor for her half-sister. Other attendants were Miss Julia J. Winpenny and Mrs. José Antonio Reynes 3d. They wore long pale green gowns in shepherdess style and carried marigolds and ivy.

Dr. Rolf R. Kern was the best man. The ushers were Jamer B. Meeker, half-brother of the bride, Guenther H. Leibkuchler, Michael C. Koch and Douglas E. McKinnon.

Mrs. Thye, a graduate of the Shipley School in Bryn Mawr, Pa., and of Finch College, was presented in New York at the dinner dance given at the Colony Club by her maternal grandfather, John Frederick Steinman, publisher of The Lancaster Newspapers and board chairman of the Steinman television and radio stations.

The bride is a granddaughter also of Mrs. Lazo Steinman of New York, whose father, Antonio Lazo Arriaga, was Foreign Minister of Guatemala and also represented Guatemala and Honduras in

The New York Times

Mr. and Mrs. Renke B. Thye, who were married in the Mead Memorial Chapel in Waccabuc, N. Y.

Washington. The bride's paternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong Meeker of New York.

The bride's father is president of the Meeker Company, television and radio station representatives. The bridegroom's father was a director of the Deutsch Südamerikanische Bank in Hamburg.

Mr. Thye is a graduate of the Heinrich Hertz Academic School for Boys in Hamburg and Sir George Williams University in Montreal. He is a senior account executive with the Norman, Craig & Kummel advertising agency in New York.

The New York Times

Published: May 25, 1969

Copyright © The New York Times